Terms of Reference for Shariah Supervisory Board

ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF AFGHANISTAN

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR SHARIAH SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. Preamble

- 1.1. The compliance with Shariah principles is paramount in Islamic banking and finance. An effective and conducive Shariah framework is imperative in assuring such compliance and will harmonize Shariah interpretations and strengthen the regulatory and oversight of the industry.
- 1.2. To achieve the above objectives, Da Afghanistan Bank (hereinafter referred to as "DAB") is committed to establish its Shariah Supervisory Board (hereinafter referred to as "the SSB") as the sole and ultimate Shariah authority in Islamic banking and finance in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan.
- 1.3. To effectively play its role, the SSB will operate as an independent body. An independent body SSB with a high level of integrity will command public confidence and will boost the industry to greater heights.
- 1.4. These Terms of Reference ("TOR") set out the relationship between the various organs of DAB and its SSB. DAB hereby under Article 2.2 of the Afghanistan Bank Law gazetted on 12/17/2003 (corresponding to 30/10/1382) in relation to the powers of DAB to regulate and supervise Banks in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan (and any amendments thereto) is vested with the authority to establish the SSB as the sole and highest Shariah authority in all matters relating to Islamic banking and finance at the national level in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan.
- 1.5. The SSB shall have an oversight authority on product and services of every Islamic Financial Institution ("IFI"), Financial Institution operating with an Islamic Window ("Islamic Window Operation") and Financial Institution operating with an Islamic Unit ("Islamic Unit") (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Banks") operating within the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan and under DAB's purview. The term "Shariah Board" is defined in Article 1.52 in the Law of Banking of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan as follows:

DA AFGHANISTAN BANK (CENTRAL BANK OF AFGHANISTAN)

Terms of Reference for Shariah Supervisory Board

Shariah Board means the group of Shariah scholars that advises an Islamic bank or an Islamic banking window regarding compliance with Shariah of banking activities and products in accordance with Shariah principles”

- 1.6. Pursuant to Clause 87.4 of the Law of Banking:

“Islamic banks and their Shariah Boards shall be responsible for all matters relating to compliance with Shariah; Da Afghanistan Bank shall have no responsibility in this regard.”

Accordingly, the responsibility for Shariah compliance, or lack thereof, of a Bank rests with the Bank and its Shariah Board. The SSB shall assist the Banks and their Shariah Board to carry out their responsibilities.

- 1.7. For the time being, pending the enactment of the laws contemplated in Clause 1.4 hereto, the SSB shall, as set out in Clause 1.6 above, merely assist the Banks in their Shariah compliant business activities wherever relevant and requested by the Banks.
- 1.8. To effectively play its role, the SSB will operate as an independent body that shall report directly to the Supreme Council of DAB. DAB believes that an independent SSB with a high level of integrity will command public confidence in the Islamic Financial system and attract the unbanked and under-banked Afghan citizens and foreign nationals in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan to participate in Islamic banking and finance for the benefit of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan economy as a whole.
- 1.9. The SSB shall be a separate and independent entity of DAB which shall consist of esteemed and reputable Shariah scholars under a contract for service to be appointed by the Supreme Council of DAB.
- 1.10. According to the Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions (“AAOIFI”), Shariah Supervisory Board is defined as:

“(A)n independent body of specialised jurist in Fiqh al Muamalat (Islamic Commercial Jurisprudence). However, the SSB may include a member other than those specialised in Fiqh al Muamalat, who should be an expert in the field of Islamic Financial Institutions and with a knowledge of Fiqh al Muamalat. The SSB is entrusted with the duty of directing, reviewing, and supervising the activities of the Bank in order to ensure that they are in compliance with Islamic Shariah rules and Principles...”

DA AFGHANISTAN BANK
(CENTRAL BANK OF AFGHANISTAN)
Terms of Reference for Shariah Supervisory Board

1.11. For all intents and purposes, as per the laws contemplated by Clause 1.4 hereto, the resolutions and rulings of the SSB shall be binding on DAB.

2. Purpose and Objective

2.1 The SSB is established to achieve the following objectives:

- a) To provide clarifications and opinions and where relevant, issue resolutions on matters pertaining to both generic and specific issues associated with Shariah principles that require a Shariah opinion;
- b) To approve all products, manuals, policies and procedures submitted by DAB and/or the Banks in relation to Islamic Banking and Finance;
- c) To resolve any conflicting issues relating to Shariah matters from the Shariah Boards of the Banks;
- d) To perform an oversight role on any Shariah matters post-approval to ensure that all of the Shariah requirements as set out in its guidelines and resolutions are followed by the Banks. The SSB shall have access to all the relevant information to ensure such compliance by the Banks. The SSB shall be given the necessary materials by the Banks including but not limited to the on-site and off-site assessment reports. For all intents and purposes, the onus of ensuring compliance to the guidelines and resolutions shall rest with the Shariah Board of the Banks as governed within the Shariah Governance Framework adopted by the Banks;
- e) To be the sole point of reference and highest authority in all Shariah matters relating to banking and finance; and
- f) To advise on such other functions as may be prescribed by DAB from time to time only in relation to Shariah matters.

2.2 Pursuant to the laws stated in clause 1.4 above (and any amendments thereto), the SSB has an advisory role only in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan. Until amended otherwise by the enactment of further additional laws and regulations, DAB hereby authorises the SSB to have, among others the following objectives:

- a) To issue opinions on how the Banks should address and rectify any Shariah non-compliant practices;
- b) To ensure that the SSB's guidelines and resolutions are followed by the Banks;
- c) To become the focal point of reference in developing new policies and regulations with regard to Islamic Finance in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan;
- d) To manage and sustain the confidence of all stakeholders and the public at large in Islamic Finance in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan;
- e) To be the authority on any matter concerning Islamic Commercial Law in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan; and
- f) To be the deciding authority in cases of conflicting opinions on Shariah matters.
